Sponsors of Referendum Petition for Ordinance 2018-10:

An application for a referendum petition for Ordinance 2018-10 was filed on October 18, 2018 in the Tooele County Clerk's Office. Utah State Code 20A-7-602.5 (2) states:

- (2) The budget officer, together with legal counsel, shall prepare an unbiased, good faith estimate of the fiscal (a) and legal impact of repealing the law the referendum proposes to repeal that contains:
- (i) A dollar amount representing the total estimated fiscal impact of repealing the law; Depending on whether a special election is held, or the referendum goes onto the next General Election (November 2020. If a special election is held, the cost would be approximately $53,000, if the referendum goes on the next General Election ballot there would be no significant cost.
 - (ii) If repealing the law would increase or decrease taxes, a dollar amount representing the total estimated increase or decrease for each type of tax that would be impacted by the law's repeal and a dollar amount representing the total estimated increase or decrease in taxes that would result from the law's repeal; None.
 - (iii) If repealing the law would result in the issuance or a change in the status of bonds, notes, or other debt instruments, a dollar amount representing the total estimated increase or decrease in public debt that would result; None.
 - (iv) A listing of all sources of funding for the estimated costs that would be associated with the law's repeal, showing each source of funding and the percentage of total funding that would be provided from each source; The cost for a special election would have to come out of the county's general fund.
 - (v) A dollar amount representing the estimated costs or savings, if any, to state and local government entities if the law were repealed; None.

Sincerely,
