

RESOLUTION 2008-16

A RESOLUTION DECLARING THE BUSINESS HOURS FOR COUNTY OFFICES TO BE FROM 7:00 A.M. TO 6:00 P.M., MONDAY THROUGH THURSDAY

WHEREAS, the State of Utah has officially adopted a four day (Monday-Thursday) work week citing numerous factors such as reduced energy consumption, cost savings to the government as well as employees, and enhanced customer service due to the extended business hours; and

WHEREAS, Tooele County shares the same concerns with respect to energy consumption, cost savings for the County as well as County employees, and providing enhanced customer service through extended business hours; and

WHEREAS, several County departments work closely with State agencies whose offices are now closed on Fridays; and

WHEREAS, closure of County Offices will address the aforementioned concerns with respect to energy and cost savings; and

WHEREAS, a change in business hours would make County Offices more accessible by the public because of the extended business hours;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE TOOEELE COUNTY COMMISSION that the business hours for all Tooele County offices, except as authorized by the County Commission, shall be 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This resolution shall take effect October 12, 2008

DATED this 23rd day of September 2008.
