What are some reasons a signature may not be valid?

- The signer is not registered to vote
- The voter is registered to vote outside of the candidate’s district or area
- The voter has already signed for the same candidate or for another candidate for the same office
- The voter is not registered with a political party that is eligible to sign the petition

Submitting the Petition Packets

- Check with the candidate to determine how to submit petition signatures. Please note that a candidate’s initial petition submission must contain enough signatures to meet or exceed the signature requirement. For example, if the candidate needs 1,000 signatures, their initial submission must contain at least 1,000 signatures.
- A candidate may submit supplemental signatures prior to the deadline if their original packet submission did not have enough valid signatures.
- The last day to submit original petition packets or supplemental packets is 14 days before the political party’s convention (by 5:00 p.m.).
