

INDIGENT CAPITAL DEFENSE FUND APPLICATION

1. Tooele County is a participating county in the Indigent Capital Defense Trust Fund.
2. Tooele County is current in its obligations and its contributions to the Indigent Capital Defense Trust Fund.
3. On January 22, 2020, the Tooele County Attorney filed four first degree aggravated murder charges, one first degree attempted aggravated murder charge, and five first degree felony discharge of a firearm charges, against Colin Jeffery Haynie in a case styled State of Utah v. Colin Jeffery Haynie, Case No. 201300046 in the Third Judicial District Court, in and for Tooele County, Utah.
4. Judge Dianna M. Gibson has found pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 32, Part 3, Utah Code Annotated, that the said defendant is indigent and unable to afford to hire legal counsel. The Court has therefore appointed attorney Richard Van Wagoner, as lead counsel, and attorney Rudy J. Bautista, as co-counsel to represent the defendant in the above-entitled action. The above-named lead counsel is qualified pursuant to Rule 8, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, to represent persons charged with capital offenses.
5. Tooele County hereby makes application to the Indigent Defense Funds Board, pursuant to §77-32-604, Utah Code Annotated, for benefits from the Fund for expenses that the County has incurred or reasonably anticipates incurring for the defense of the indigent defendant in the above-entitled capital action.
6. The following documents are attached to this application:
 - A. A copy of the information or charging document.

- B. A copy of the Court's Finding of Indigency; and
 - C. A copy of the Court's Order Assigning Legal Counsel for Indigent Defendant.
7. This application, along with the attachments, should be sent to:
