Section

4-1-1. Purpose.

4-1-2. Definitions.

4-1-3. Terms.

4-1-4. Electronic meetings.

4-1-5. Concurrent service.

4-1-6. County nonresidents.

4-1-7. Alternate committee members.

4-1-1. Purpose.

The purpose of this chapter is to establish principles and regulations governing county committees.

4-1-2. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, “committee” means all boards, councils, commissions, committees and districts included in this title.

4-1-3. Terms.

(1) Each full term of office shall begin on January 1, and shall end on December 31 of the final year of the term of office.

(2) If a committee member’s term expires without a duly elected or appointed successor, the member’s position is considered vacant, but the member may continue to serve until a successor is duly elected or appointed.

(3) If a committee member resigns or is removed from office prior to the end of the member’s current term, a successor shall be elected or appointed to fill the remainder of that term.

(4) No person may serve more than two consecutive full terms on any given committee.

(5) When possible, committee members’ terms shall be staggered.

(6) Committee members serve at the pleasure of the council. The council may remove committee members at any time with or without cause.

(7) This section supersedes all contrary ordinances and bylaws. The council may grant exceptions to this section.

4-1-4. Electronic meetings.

(1) Committees may hold electronic meetings.

(2) A request for an electronic meeting must be made by a committee member at least three days prior to the meeting.

(3) The committee shall give public notice of the meeting pursuant to the Utah Open and Public Meetings Act, post written notice of the meeting at the anchor location, provide notice of the electronic meeting to committee members at least 24 hours before the meeting, and inform committee members and the public how to connect to the electronic meeting.

(4) A quorum of the committee must be physically present at a single anchor location for the meeting and vote to authorize the electronic meeting. Unless otherwise specified, the anchor location shall be the location where the committee generally meets.

(5) Interested persons and the public may attend, monitor, and participate in the open portions of the meeting. In-person attendance and in-person participation may be limited or prohibited if electronic attendance and participation is provided for.

(6) Notwithstanding subsections (3), (4) and (5), the committee may convene and conduct an electronic meeting without an anchor location if the chair makes a written determination that conducting the meeting with an anchor location presents a substantial risk to the health and safety of those who may be present at the anchor location, states in the written determination the facts upon which the determination is based, includes the written determination in the public notice for the meeting, reads the written determination at the beginning of the meeting, and includes in the public notice information on how the public may view or make comments at the meeting.

4-1-5. Concurrent service.

(1) Elected officials and government employees may concurrently serve on any number of committees.

(2) Persons who are neither elected officials nor government employees may not concurrently serve on more than two committees and may not concurrently serve as the chair or vice-chair of more than one committee.

4-1-6. County nonresidents.

When making appointments to committees, the council shall favor the appointment of county residents, but may appoint county nonresidents if such appointments are not contrary to law and if the council determines such appointments to be in the county's best interest.

4-1-7. Alternate committee members.

(1) The council may appoint alternate committee members to any committee.

(2) An alternate committee member may vote only in the absence of a regular committee member.

CHAPTER 2

HISTORICAL PRESERVATION COMMISSION

Section

4-2-1. Purpose.

4-2-2. Creation of historical preservation commission.

4-2-3. Duties of the Tooele County Historical Preservation Commission.

4-2-1. Purpose.

This chapter is for the purpose of establishing an Historical Preservation Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Historic District Act, Section 17A-3-1301 through 1306 of the Utah Code. The Tooele County Historical Preservation Commission is created to identify, preserve, protect and enhance historic and prehistoric areas and sites lying within Tooele County.

4-2-2. Creation of historical preservation commission.

There is hereby created a Tooele County Historical Preservation Commission of five (5) members who have demonstrated interest, compliance or knowledge in historical preservation. At least two (2) of these members shall have expertise in the disciplines of history and architecture or architectural history. The members shall be appointed by the Tooele County Commission. Said members shall be residents of Tooele County. The Clerk shall notify such appointees and request a written acceptance from them on their appointment. All such designated appointees shall within thirty (30) days file with the Clerk his or her acceptance of appointment. Should the same not be filed within the said period, the person shall be considered to have declined the appointment, and the Commission shall designate another person for such appointment. The designated appointees upon filing acceptance of appointment, shall automatically be members of the Tooele County Historical Preservation Commission. Members of the Historical Preservation Commission shall serve until replaced or removed by the Tooele County Commission. The Historical Preservation Commission shall meet at least twice each year and shall appoint a Chairperson from among its members. Business shall be conducted in open public meetings with written minutes of each Commission meeting, prepared and available for public inspection. All vacancies on the Commission occasioned by removal, resignation or otherwise shall be reported to the County Commission, who shall fill such vacancy pursuant to the manner of appointment provided herein.

4-2-3. Duties of the Tooele County Historical Preservation Commission.

It shall be the duty of the Commission to:

(1) Survey and Inventory Community Historic Resources. The Historic Preservation Commission shall conduct or cause to be conducted a survey of historic, architectural and archeological resources within Tooele County. The survey shall be compatible with the Utah inventory of historic and archeological sites. Survey and inventory documents shall be maintained and open to the public. The survey will be updated at least every 10 years.

(2) Review Proposed Nominations to the National Register of Historic Places. The Historic Preservation Commission shall review and comment to the State Historic Preservation Officer on all proposed National Register nominations for the properties within the boundaries of Tooele County. When the Historic Preservation Commission considers a National Register nomination which is normally evaluated by professionals in a specific discipline and that discipline is not represented on the Commission, the Commission will seek expertise in this area before rendering its decision.

(3) Provide Advice and Information.

(a) The Historic Preservation Commission shall act in an advisory role to other officials and departments of Tooele County regarding the identification and protection of local historic and archeological resources.

(b) The Historic Preservation Commission shall work toward the continuing education of citizens regarding historic preservation and Tooele County's history.

(4) Enforcement of State Historic Preservation Laws. The Commission shall support the enforcement of all State laws relating to historic preservation. These include, but are not limited to the following Utah Code Sections: Utah Code Annotated §11-18-2, "The Historic District Act;";

Utah Code Annotated §63-18-25, 27 and 30 regarding the protection of Utah antiquities; and Utah Code Annotated §63-18-37 regarding notification of the State Historic Preservation Office of any known proposed action which would destroy or affect a site, building or object owned by the State of Utah and included on or eligible for the State or national registers.

4-3-3. Appointment.

The Council on Aging shall consist of eleven voting members. They shall be appointed by the Board of County Commissioners. At least six of the members shall be older persons, including minority and low income individuals, who are participants or eligible to participate in programs authorized by the Older American's Act. The representatives of each Senior Citizen's Board in the County shall be included on the Council. The other members of the Council may be:

- (1) representatives of older persons;

- (2) representatives of health care provider organizations, including providers of veterans' health care, if available;
- (3) representatives of supportive service provider organizations;
- (4) persons with leadership experience in the private and voluntary sectors;
- (5) local elected officials;
- (6) the general public; or
- (7) representatives of low income individuals.

4-3-4. Terms.

Council on Aging members shall be appointed to four-year terms. The terms shall commence January 1, 1995. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the initial terms shall be staggered with five members' terms expiring after two years. Any vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the Board of County Commissioners. Members shall serve no more than two consecutive terms on the Council.

4-3-5. Organization of council.

The Council on Aging shall select from its members a chairperson and vice-chairperson. The Council may appoint such other officers as the Council deems necessary and desirable. The Council may adopt such procedural rules as it deems necessary to conduct its business and shall have authority to adopt, amend or repeal by-laws for the operation of the affairs of the Council.

4-3-6. Center boards.

Each Senior Citizen's Center located within Tooele County may create an Advisory Board. Each Advisory Board shall advise the Center's staff on programs and activities of the center and promote and develop activities of interest to seniors. Each Advisory Board shall nominate a representative for appointment to the Council on Aging.
