7. Indemnification. Contractor shall defend, indemnify and hold County and its officers, employees and volunteers harmless from all claims, lawsuits, demands, judgments and liabilities directly or indirectly arising out of Contractor's negligent acts, intentional acts, errors or omissions in performing the described services.

8. Insurance. Contractor shall obtain and maintain the following types and amounts:

Coverage	Minimum Limit
Commercial General Liability	Per Occurrence - $2,000,000 Aggregate - $3,000,000
Spectator Liability	Combined Single Limit = $1,000,000

All insurance policies shall be issued by a company or companies authorized to do business in the State of Utah which carry a Moody's rating of not less than A.

9. Relationship of Parties. This Agreement does not create any joint venture, partnership, undertaking or business arrangement between the parties. The contractual relationship between County and Contractor is one of independent contractor and not agency. Contractor is not a County employee and has no authority to enter obligations on behalf of County.

10. Expiration and Termination. This Agreement shall expire on October 1, 2021. This Agreement may be terminated for cause by either party upon 10 days' written notice to the other party. This Agreement may be terminated by County without cause upon 30 days' written notice to Contractor. If County terminates for convenience, Contractor shall cease performing services, and County shall pay to Contractor compensation for services performed and costs incurred prior to termination.

11. Acceptance of Final Payment Constitutes Release. The acceptance by Contractor of the final payment made under this Agreement shall operate as and be a release of County from all claims and liabilities for compensation to, or claimed by, Contractor.

12. Waiver of Remedies. Failure by either party to insist upon the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of such party's right to demand strict compliance by such other party in the future. All remedies permitted or available to a party under this Agreement, or at law or equity, shall be cumulative and alternative, and invocation of any such right or remedy shall not constitute a waiver or election of remedies with respect to any other permitted or available remedy.

13. Construction. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Utah.

14. Integration. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and integrates all prior conversations, discussions or understandings of whatever kind or nature and may only be modified by a subsequent writing signed by the parties.

15. Future Appropriations. This Agreement shall not be construed in any manner to bind County's future budget appropriations.

16. Construction of Language. The provisions of this Agreement shall be construed according to their common meaning and purpose of providing a public benefit and not strictly for or against any party. It shall be construed consistent with the provisions hereof, in order to achieve the objectives and purposes of the parties. Wherever required by the context, the singular shall include the plural, and the masculine gender shall include the feminine or neutral genders.

17. Captions. Captions used in this Agreement are for convenience only and do not define, limit or describe the scope or intent of any provision of the Agreement.

18. Authorization. Each party has expressly authorized the execution of this Agreement on its behalf.

19. Ethical Standards and Conduct. Contractor represents that it has not: (a) provided an illegal gift or payoff to a county officer or employee or former county officer or employee; (b) retained any person to solicit or secure this contract upon an agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee; or (c) knowingly influenced (and hereby promises that it will not knowingly influence) a county officer or employee or former county officer or employee to breach any of the ethical standards set forth in the County's Conflict of Interest ordinance.
