Andy Welch
Tooele County Childrens Justice Center

Dear Andy Welch,

It is my pleasure to inform you that the Utah Office for Victims of Crime has approved the Tooele County Childrens Justice Center Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) application for funding under the VOCA Victim's Assistance Fund in the amount of $61,594.44 for year 1 and $54,869.44 for year 2 with a total award amount of $116,463.88. VOCA victim assistance funds support states and communities, including American Indian tribes and Alaska Native villages, with direct services which respond to the immediate needs of crime victims, so that the severity of the psychological trauma is reduced; assist the victim in participating in the criminal justice process; and help restore the victim's sense of dignity, self-esteem, and coping mechanisms.

Enclosed you will find the award package. This award is subject to all administrative and financial requirements, including the timely submission of all financial and programmatic reports, resolution of all interim audit findings, and the maintenance of a minimum level of cash-on-hand. Should you not adhere to these requirements, you will be in violation of the terms of this agreement and the award will be subject to termination for cause or other administrative action as appropriate.

Please note, all project-related materials and accounting records must be maintained for a period of three years from the date of your last financial status report, unless an audit has been initiated or unresolved audit findings remain. All records must be maintained until the audit findings are resolved. Pursuant to CFR §200.332, recipient of this award is required to permit the awarding agency (UOVC) and auditors to have access to the recipient's records and financial statements as necessary for the awarding agency.

Please find a completed copy of your contract on the online grants management system utahgrants.utah.gov. Quarterly grant progress reports, performance measure reports, and financial status reports must be submitted at least quarterly no later than October 30, January 30, April 30, and July 15. Financial reports may be submitted monthly.

If you have any questions regarding this award, please contact Amy Dorsey, Grant Analyst, at (801) 238-2360 or adorsey@utah.gov. We look forward to working with you during the coming program year.

Sincerely,

Gary Scheller, Director
