

2022 Financial Disclosure Deadlines
For Non-Partisan Legislative Candidates & Officeholders

Type of Report	Report Due Date	Reports Include All Transactions Between	Penalty for Late or No Report
Received Contributions	Report all contributions within 31 days of receipt OR Within 7 business days after the contribution is received during the 30 days prior to convention, the primary, or the general election if the candidate is contested	Must report all received contributions by either the 31-day or 7-day deadline	10% - 20% of the amount of each late contribution
Convention	March 28, 2022	January 1, 2022 – March 23, 2022	$100 fine
Primary	June 21, 2020	March 24, 2022 -- June 16, 2022	$100 fine and potential disqualification from election
September 30	September 30, 2020	June 17, 2022– September 25, 2022	$100 fine and potential disqualification from election
General	November 1, 2022	September 26, 2022– October 27, 2022	$100 fine and potential disqualification from election
Year End	January 10, 2023	October 28, 2022– December 31, 2022	$100 fine

Please note that campaign finance deadlines are subject to change by the legislature.

Contributions are considered reported as soon as they are saved in your online financial ledger. You only need to click “File Report” once you have entered all contributions and expenditures for a reporting period.

Unaffiliated legislative candidates must file a financial disclosure report on or by March 28, 2022, even though they are not participating in a convention or the partisan nomination process.