

Joy L. Peters
Candidate for Tooele County Assessor

Joy has over 30 years of experience working in the Real Estate Market of Utah. She was a Realtor in Utah County for several years. She worked at the Utah County Assessor's Office for 8 years as an appraiser, receiving the Utah State Designations of Ad Valorem Residential and Commercial Appraiser, as well as continuing her education and experience to receive the Certified General Appraiser License. She has worked at the Utah State Tax Commission for the past 16 years, assigned as a County Representative for oversight, audits, and as a liaison to counties, including Tooele County. She has enjoyed working with Tooele County Elected Officials and their offices. She has been a member of the International Association of Assessing Officers for over 15 years, and served as a local chapter board member.

Joy and her husband Jonathan have 3 children and 5 grandsons. They enjoy living in Erda on their farm and own property in Stockton. They have participated in discussions and meetings regarding development, infrastructure, and other issues in their community. They raise sheep and have been active supporters of the Tooele County Junior Livestock show.
